Explanation:

Choice "B" is correct. The independent auditor would not confirm directly with the client's lawyer that all claims have been recorded in the financial statements.

Management has the responsibility to include all claims in the financial statements, not the lawyers. The purpose of a legal letter is to obtain outside corroboration of the information furnished by management concerning litigation, claims, and assessments.

Choice "A" is incorrect. The auditor should obtain assurance from management that it has disclosed all unasserted claims that the lawyer has advised are probable of assertion and must be disclosed.

Choice "C" is incorrect. The auditor should inquire of and discuss with management the controls adopted for identifying, evaluating, and accounting for litigation, claims, and assessments.

Choice "D" is incorrect. The auditor should obtain from management a description and evaluation of litigation, claims, and assessments existing at the balance sheet date.
