A. Change the Membership type of Group1 to

B. Create an access review.

C. Implement Azure AD Privileged Identity Management.

D. Implement Azure AD Identity Protection.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation

In Azure Active Directory (Azure AD), you can create complex attribute-based rules to enable dynamic memberships for groups. Dynamic group membership reduces the administrative overhead of adding and removing users.

When any attributes of a user or device change, the system evaluates all dynamic group rules in a directory to see if the change would trigger any group adds or removes. If a user or device satisfies a rule on a group, they are added as a member of that group. If they no longer satisfy the rule, they are removed.

NEW QUESTION: 3

Note: This question is part of a series of questions that present the same scenario. Each question in the series contains a unique solution that might meet the stated goals. Some questions sets might have more than one correct solution, while others might not have a correct solution.

After you answer a question in this section, you will not be able to return to it. As a result, these questions will not appear in the review screen.

You need to configure the Group Policy for salespeople.

Solution: You create a domain security group named SalesDevices and add all client devices to this group.

You also create one Group Policy object (GPO) that has an AppLocker policy rule that applies to SalesDevices. You link the GPO to the root of the domain.

Does this meet the goal?

A. No

B. Yes

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation/Reference:

Explanation:

The GPO should not apply to the desktop computers.
