The deployment solution must meet the following requirements: The application is able to access files stored on an internal solid-state drive (SSD) on the tablets.

The application is isolated from other applications.

The application uses the least amount of disk space on the tablet.

You need to deploy the new application to the tablets.

Explanation:

Deploying the application as a published application on the Remote Desktop server will use no disk space on the tablets. Users will be able to access the application by using Remote Desktop Connections. This will also ensure that the application is isolated from other applications on the tablets.

We can use Remote Desktop Connection 'redirection' to ensure that the application is able to access files stored on an internal solid-state drive (SSD) on the tablets. Redirection enables access to local resources such as drives, printers etc. in a Remote Desktop Connection.
