NEW QUESTION: 1

You plan to migrate your Oracle Version 11.1.0.2 database to your Exadata Database Machine.

The database supports an online transaction processing (OLTP) workload and is currently hosted on a Little Endian platform Which two are the supported and appropriate migration methods to minimize downtime?

- A. Migrate using cross platform Transportable Database.
- B. Migrate using GoldenGate.
- C. Migrate using ASM online migration.
- D. Upgrade source database to 11.2.0 and migrate using a physical standby database.
- E. Migrate using Data Pump.

Answer: A,E

Explanation:

B:Oracle Data Pump can be used to migrate an Oracle database to a new platform, and to move from an older release of the database to a newer release. Using Oracle Data Pump to move an E-Business Suite database is a well-documented and tested procedure, and can be used to migrate your database to the Oracle Exadata Database Machine and upgrade it to Oracle Database 11g release 2 (11.2) in the same exercise

http://www.cisco.com/en/US/docs/ios-xml/ios/sec_data_zbf/configuration/x3/sec-zone-pol-fw.html Zone Pairs A zone pair allows you to specify a unidirectional firewall policy between two security zones.

To define a zone pair, use the zone-pair security command. The direction of the traffic is specified by source and destination zones. The source and destination zones of a zone pair must be security zones.

You can select the default or self zone as either the source or the destination zone. The self zone is a systemdefined zone which does not have any interfaces as members. A zone pair that includes the self zone, along with the associated policy, applies to traffic directed to the device or traffic generated by the device. It does not apply to traffic through the device. The most common usage of firewall is to apply them to traffic through a device, so you need at least two zones (that is, you cannot use the self zone).

To permit traffic between zone member interfaces, you must configure a policy permitting (or inspecting) traffic between that zone and another zone. To attach a firewall policy map to the target zone pair, use the servicepolicy type inspect command.

The figure below shows the application of a firewall policy to traffic flowing from zone Z1 to zone Z2, which means that the ingress interface for the traffic is a member of zone Z1 and the egress interface is a member of zone Z2.

If there are two zones and you require policies for traffic going in both directions (from Z1 to Z2 and Z2 to Z1), you must configure two zone pairs (one for each direction).

If a policy is not configured between zone pairs, traffic is dropped. However, it is not necessary to configure a zone pair and a service policy solely for the return traffic. By default, return traffic is not allowed. If a service policy inspects the traffic in the forward direction and there is no zone pair and service policy for the return traffic, the return traffic is inspected. If a service policy passes the traffic in the forward direction and there is no zone pair and service policy for the return traffic, the return traffic is dropped. In both these cases, you need to configure a zone pair and a service policy to allow the return traffic. In the above figure, it is not mandatory that you configure a zone pair source and destination for allowing return traffic from Z2 to Z1. The service policy on Z1 to Z2 zone pair takes care of it.
