NEW QUESTION: 2

A network operations engineer of company ABC is responsible for the operations and maintenance aspects of the MPLS backbone.

The MPLS backbone is built by using MPLS-capable routers that are connected with Gigabit Ethernet and POS interfaces. A complaint was received about the lack of connectivity between two sites of the end customer of the ABC company. This customer relies on the availability of the MPLS label-switched path that is provided by the backbone network of company ABC. The operations engineer quickly determined that the MPLS label entries for certain prefixes provided by LDP were missing on one of the provider edge routers that connected to the customer router. The operations engineer also determined that the LDP session of the PE router was down with some of its neighbors in the backbone.

Which three of the following statements represent valid considerations for further troubleshooting? (Choose three.)

- A. A ping that is using the PE's own transport address as source might help to determine if the LDP transport addresses of the peers are unreachable.
- B. The MPLS label-switched path ping to the LDP router ID of the peer will be helpful to determine the issue with LDP.
- C. Interface label space might be incorrectly configured, or the router might be unable to allocate the interface label.
- D. A Layer 1 or 2 connectivity problem might be causing LDP to be unable to discover link-local peers.
- E. A fault or a misconfiguration on the backbone in the downstream direction might be causing label retention problems.
- F. There could be a password mismatch between the LDP neighbors. Logging messages might uncover a message that is related to password mismatch.

Box 1: Unattend.xml

In preparation to deploy shielded VMs, you may need to create an operating system specialization answer file.

On Windows, this is commonly known as the "unattend.xml" file. The New-ShieldingDataAnswerFile Windows PowerShell function helps you do this. Starting with Windows Server version 1709, you can run certain Linux guest OSes in shielded VMs. If you are using the System Center Virtual Machine Manager Linux agent to specialize those VMs, the New-ShieldingDataAnswerFile cmdlet can create compatible answer files for it.

Box 2: The Azure Portal

You can use the Azure portal to deploy a Linux virtual machine (VM) in Azure that runs Ubuntu.
